The hunt will take an entire day and as the president's scheduled stop here is of but four hours, a re-arrangement of his plans would have to be made. It is hoped this can be done. DEATH OF MRS. GOUGH WHO WAS WELL KNOWN HERE

News was received from Denver yesterday of the death of Mrs. Sallie Gough who was well known here as Sallie Halthusen, daughter of H. Halthusen, who died in December at the Brown hotel of heart failure. She underwent an operation about two weeks ago and was nearly recovered when, against the advice of her physician, she went to Overland park. The exertion proved too great for her and she died at noon Monday. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from her late residence. She left three children. Mrs. Gough was a noted horsewoman.

DIED—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McGraw of 1112 South Nevada avenue, died yesterday morning. Funeral services over the remains will be held this afternoon. Interment will be made at Evergreen.

Medals Designed by E. [illegible] for Presid[illegible]

Souvenir medals of gold, designed by F. H. Ernest, of the firm of Foltz & Hardy of this city, will be presented to President Roosevelt, President D. R. Francis of the exposition, and to the personal representative of Emil Loubet, president of France.

The medals will be presented by Governor Peabody, who will make the presentation speech. The gold was donated by the Rio Pueblo company. Accompanying the medals will be a scroll, stating that the World's fair managers present them as tokens of esteem.

The presentations will be made at the dedicatory exercises to be held April 30.

A description of the interesting medals appears in the testimonials and reads as follows:

The obverse side of the medal bears bas-relief busts of Thomas Jefferson of the United States of America, and Napoleon Bonaparte of France, representatives of the two contracting nations at the time of the Louisiana purchase in 1803.

The essential design of the reverse side is a large monogram, "U. S.," formed by interlacing an inverted horse shoe with a scroll. The monogram, encircled by 14 stars, representing the states and territories of the Louisiana purchase, is intended to symbolize the good fortune of the United States in acquiring this valuable district.

Klapetzky Makes Arg[illegible] for [illegible]

W. E. Klapetzky, secretary and treasurer of the Journeymen Barbers International union, arrived in the city yesterday noon and was taken through the Garden of the Gods and to Manitou, and later in the afternoon a visit was made to the Printers home. In the evening the local Barbers union gave a smoker and nearly every barber in the city was present, about 75 being there. The feature of the evening was the address given by Mr. Klapetzky in which he outlined the work of the International union and the objects sought by the organization. The principal theme of the talk was in relation to sanitary [illegible] in use in shops all over the country, and the results of new methods of sanitation. He urged upon every member of the craft the necessity of taking every precaution against infectious diseases to prevent their spreading, and outlined the plans for the study of all diseases of the skin with which a barber comes in contact. He outlined the movement to place the business upon a scientific basis, making every barber capable of treating all diseases of the face and scalp.

Mr. Klapetzky has been secretary and treasurer of the organization for 12 years and prior to that time he was vice president for three years. He has made a careful study of the subject and is thoroughly in earnest in his work.

Speaking of the movement for better sanitation Mr. Klapetzky said: "We are making strenuous efforts to better the condition of our craft and to more thoroughly perfect the art and place it upon a scientific basis. To that end we are endeavoring to secure legislation favorable to the movement and requiring that every shop be placed upon a sanitary basis.

"The governor of Colorado has just vetoed a bill which passed both houses of the legislature and when I learned of it I was much surprised as I had just received word from Rhode Island that a similar bill has passed there. In many other states similar bills have been passed and are successful in their workings in every instance. The first bill was passed in Minnesota in 1894 and the law prevails today. I believe the governor's idea was that it was unnecessary legislation. However, we are not discouraged as we are bound to place the business upon the proper basis, and we will get the results sooner or later."

Mr. Klapetzky leaves on an early train this morning for Pueblo and from there he will go to Salt Lake City and the Pacific coast. He is combining business with pleasure on the trip and will be away from Cleveland for about one month.

Children's Coughs and Colds.

Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E. First street, Hutchinson, Kas., writes: "I have given Ballard's Horehound Syrup to my children for coughs and colds for the past four years, and find it the best medicine I ever used." Unlike many cough syrups, it contains no opium, but will soothe and heal any disease of the throat or lungs quicker than any other remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

Fack's Bad Boy Not [illegible] Teddy [illegible]

"Teddy and Reggie Oliphant, New York," they would have registered at the Antlers had their barn given the service; or, to state it more correctly, could they have written.

They stood together, shoulder to shoulder, like a [illegible] staring at their father, W. K. Oliphant, as he wrote his name and asked for a room with two beds.

"And," he said anxiously to Chief Clerk Wright, with a cautious glance at the boys and in a lowered tone, "make it a room where there is nothing breakable; don't let any ink remain in reach of the gentlemen behind me—my sons. Give us a room, please, where there is no danger of them climbing on the window sill to jump over to the Park, and if you have a telescope, wrap it up. I'll only be here a day but these precautions are necessary, very necessary, I assure you."

Mr. Wright looked at Teddy and Reggie, and Teddy and Reggie returned the glance of the young man behind the counter with interest. Mr. Wright saw two sturdily built twins of five years old, spick and span in appearance, with lace collars and a suggestion of the dearly beloved and never-to-be-forgotten little Lord Fauntleroy hovering around them. Their curls were tumbled, it is true, but their dark, child eyes were serene and their lips were curved in a grin that made Mr. Wright feel just a bit suspicious of the bland expression on their faces.

On Black List.

His suspicions were well founded. Before the twins left with their father for New York last evening he had made the discovery that Teddy and Reggie are blacklisted by every hotel on the Pacific coast, and that the reason they are unaccompanied by a governess is because of their open defiance of all the canons of politeness and obedience. No governess will stay with them.

It began at luncheon. The twins faced their father at a table in the dining room. They were sulky because Mr. Oliphant had ordered ice cream for dessert with fruit and a small black coffee, all of which had been denied them. The cream at the Antlers was served in brick form on a paper napkin which resembles a lace dolly as it rests on the plate.

Imagine Mr. Oliphant's confusion when Teddy in a shrill voice that was plainly heard across the room shrieked out with seeming disgust:

"Daddy, daddy, your ice cream's on your napkin!"

Reggie gave a throaty chuckle and went to sleep, snoring loudly until his father smacked him on his chubby hand just enough to awake him.

The head waiter approached. He admired the glossy curls and pink cheeks of the Oliphant cherubs and said, softly, to Teddy who was eyeing him askance:

"Ze pretty enfant! A little girl, such hair would become, monsieur!"

"You wouldn't have said that if you'd seen me at Pasadena, would he, daddy?"

"No?" questioned the head waiter. "And what happen at Pasadeen, eh?"

This Was Awful

"A boy called Reggie a girl, and we sailed into him and beat him up, didn't we, daddy?"

"These boys are tyrants,' explained Mr. Oliphant, while the major domo bowed and looked sympathetically at him. "Their mother was called east while we were in California and left me to bring them home. I'm doing it—that is, I'm endeavoring to. I have insured my life and have overdrawn my bank account paying for the damages assessed against me wherever we have stopped. I have tried the rod but my sons seem blessed with the shortest memories on record. Probably the badness in them is but the sowing of wild oats in infancy. They may be geniuses, but I am sometimes tempted to think in the transmigration of souls—pardon me, but I cannot speak about my sons without strong emotion."

"Ooh, ooh," said the head waiter softly and sympathetically. "L' diable!"

"Maybe," sighed Mr. Oliphant.

The orchestra has reason to remember the twins. The last act of their theatric stay at the Antlers was when Reggie stole up to the room, secured a battered and tuneless mouth-organ that his father had secured for him in Pasadena and insisted on accompanying them to the extent of his ability, resembling, with puffed-out cheeks, an animated frog. His father was paying the bill at the counter and arrived at the elevators just in time to rescue his gleeful young hopeful from a flying wedge of bell boys, spurred on by the almost hysterical violinist.

"PE-RU-NA SAVED MY LIFE"

Writes Mrs. W. McRoberts.

Women Made Strong and Happy Mothers.

Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs is a Frequent Cause of Barrenness.

Pe-ru-na Eradicates Catarrh from the System.

TO THE woman of ancient Israel not to become a mother was regarded as the greatest of earthly calamities. To become a mother—more especially the mother of a strong, healthy boy—was the height of glory for the faithful woman of the good old Bible days. Even now, when maternity is not esteemed as of yore, the mother of healthy children is an object of admiration, and sometimes envy, by her neighbors. As compared with ancient peoples, the average American woman has a low appreciation of motherhood. There are, however, a great many exceptions to this statement.

The accompanying letters from grateful women who have been made strong, healthy and happy mothers need no added words of ours to make them convincing. Catarrh had weakened and impaired their entire systems. Peruna made them sound and well.

Mrs. L. M. Griffith, Arco, Idaho, writes:

"Your medicine did me a wonderful amount of good. It cured me of barrenness. I am 30 years old and never had any children; but since beginning your medicine I gave birth to a 9-pound baby girl. She is now six months old and weighs 25 pounds. My friends were all surprised. Some would not believe it until they came to see me.

"My husband says he never saw such a change in any one as there was in me after I had taken three or four bottles of Peruna. I am stronger than I have been since I was quite young. God bless you and your medicine forever. I can not tell you all. My letter is too long already; but I will say Peruna cured me. I never saw or heard of anything half so good. I can never thank you enough for your kindness. In cases of la grippe it works like a charm. It cured my baby when other medicines failed. She was really sad with la grippe."—Mrs. L. M. Griffith.

Mrs. E. E. Thomas, Alpha, Mo., writes:

"I have used your Peruna and Manalin. I had been doctoring for several years, but kept getting worse. One day a neighbor woman brought me your book, the "Ills of Life," and wanted me to take your medicine. I told her that I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I had tried so much medicine. My neighbors thought I was nearly dead with consumption.

"Finally I concluded that I would make a last trial. So my husband got me a bottle of Peruna and Manalin. I commenced taking them according to directions. That was two years ago. A year ago last November I gave birth to a 10-pound baby boy, who is well and hearty; and I am doing my own housework. I can never give Peruna too great praise. I think it is the best medicine I ever heard of."—Mrs. E. E. Thomas.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

A YOUNG MOTHER'S LETTER.

Mrs. W. McRoberts, writes to Dr. Hartman from Delano, Miss., the following:

Delano, Miss.

Doctor S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio:

Dear Sir:—"I feel perfectly well of catarrh. I did as you directed me to and took Peruna and Manalin. The third of March I gave birth to a 10-pound baby girl and we are both well and happy. I am very thankful to you, and Peruna saved my life. I recommend it to everyone and can't praise it enough.

"I send you my own and my baby's picture. She is so sweet and good,—she is a Peruna baby. I have such good health now; I do all my housework and take care of my baby, and feel so good.

"There are three or four of my neighbors using Peruna, since it did me so much good. They were just run down, and they think it is fine. It is so good to give strength."—Mrs. W. McRoberts.

Chilblains and Coldsores.

Mr. Jos. Wright, Cedar Springs, Mich., writes: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for chilblains and coldsores, and it has cured me." Also for burns, bruises, sores, boils, felons, corns, cuts, wounds, scalds, chapped hands, skin eruptions, piles. Best salve on earth. 25c at Hefley-Arcularius Drug Co.

[illegible] Women's Clubs

The dates for the annual convention of the State Federation of Women's clubs to be held in this city have been set. At a meeting of the executive board held in Denver Monday, September 29, 30 and October 1 and 2 were selected as the days upon which the sessions of the convention should be held. It is expected that delegates from the different clubs in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Utah and Missouri federations will be in attendance as well as the state delegates. Mrs. Dimies T. S. Denison, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, will be the guest of honor. Preparations are being made by the local club women to entertain the visitors.

At the meeting of the executive board arrangements for the work conference of the northeast district were completed. This conference will be held in Longmont May 9 and the chamber of commerce of that town is to pay all the expenses.

The executive board is now preparing a list of names to be submitted to Governor Peabody for selection for the commission which he is to appoint to take charge of the traveling library work.

The Colorado society has admitted into its organization the Monday Evening Clio of Denver, thus closing the day of strictly women's clubs in the society. The Monday Evening Clio has both men and women among its members.

that it would be returned on demand. It alleges further that on January 1, 1900, demand was made for the return of the money, and that $2,000 of it was returned. The suit is for the balance of $500.

A motion giving notice of the day of trial, was filed in the case of James F. Collins against John T. Milliken. The basis of this suit is the demand for $1,000, alleged to be due as the result of a contract said to be entered into between the plaintiff and defendant, whereby the plaintiff was to secure a donation of $10,000 from the city of Florence. The complaint alleges that the donation was secured, but that the defendant refused to live up to the terms of the contract, which it is stated provided for the payment of a commission of 10 per cent.

REMAINS BROUGHT HERE—Fred C. Ogden died in Denver Monday night as the result of an operation performed on his throat. The remains were brought to this city and taken in charge by the J. C. Johnson Undertaking company. The deceased was connected with the Chicago Portable House company. The family resides at 427 Cooper avenue. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

A SHORT-SIGHTED POLICY.

THE CHIEF trouble with the Denver newspapers is that in their anxiety to make a point against one another, or to push the particular scheme which they have in hand, they do irreparable injury to the taxpayers and citizens of Denver.

The News, for example, endeavors to convince its readers that, owing to the excessive taxes of the Wright administration, property all over the city is for sale at panic prices, and that little or no rents can be obtained. This is a very poor argument, and is a decided blunder from a newspaper point of view, because it injures the town in the eyes of outsiders and does not help the cause of the News to any appreciable degree.

The Republican is just as bad in another respect. In its attempt to make a case against the old fire and police board it is printing cartoons daily which seek to convey the impression that Denver is a wide-open town of the lowest character; that gambling in various forms prevails without let or hindrance. This is a blunder for the reason that the evil is thus greatly exaggerated. Who wants to make a home in Denver if it is one great big gambling joint, such as is suggested by these cartoons?

If these newspapers would carry on their warfare against the party or individuals responsible for present conditions instead of giving a continued series of black eyes to their town, the city of Denver would be vastly better off.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND HARVARD.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is credited with an ambition to become president of Harvard university upon the retirement of President Eliot.

There is probably not a Harvard graduate who would not declare that to go from the presidency of the United States to the presidency of Harvard university would be a promotion.

The old idea that a president of a college is to be only a pedagogue is being rapidly dissipated. In these days of immense endowment funds, of large faculties, of scholarships and gifts and a multitude of professional schools, the office of president demands a man of intense activity and of business capacity as well as scholastic attainments.

President Roosevelt could fill the bill in some of these respects at least, if not in others. Not only that, but he would give the cause of athletics at Harvard a tremendous impetus. Most graduates of the Crimson university know to their sorrow that Harvard has been sadly deficient of late years in the field of sport.

Her victories, especially over Yale, have been few and far between. With Roosevelt at the head of the college, we may be sure that this would be changed and that right quickly. There would be victories in football, baseball and rowing or he would know the reason why. The result of his accession to the presidency of the institution would be a tremendous influx of husky young men from all over the land. They would all want to get into the strenuous life of the college at Cambridge.

So then, from many points of view, the trustees of Harvard might go farther and fare worse than to select Theodore Roosevelt to succeed Charles William Eliot.

WHAT WILL PENNYPACKER DO?

THE HEARING before Governor Pennypacker on the libel law in Pennsylvania will be an interesting test of the power of Boss Quay. Nearly every newspaper of the state, Republican and Democratic alike, is against the bill, with the exception of a few subsidized organs. But Quay is for the bill. That much is known, for his personal telegrams to members of the assembly urging them to support the measure have been printed.

Some provisions of the bill are salutary, but they are already covered by existing laws upon the subject. The danger of the measure lies in the fact that it permits any person who, through any statement in the press, has been caused "physical or mental suffering," to collect heavy damages. The measure undoubtedly will have the effect of suppressing a free and vigorous discussion of the acts and the records of public men through the columns of the press. It may thus be made a vehicle for gross injustice to the people of the state as well as to the newspapers. Hence the action of Governor Pennypacker will be awaited with keen interest.

It is rather curious how words which are often found first in the sporting columns of the newspapers soon get into the more staid and dignified literary productions. Here is the word "stunt," for example, purely a baseball term, which is now found in Harper's Magazine and even in the Atlantic Monthly, although the latter, in true Boston style, attempts to give the word a meaning which does not really belong to it. The rule which appears to take a word from the realm of slang into literature appears to be that such a word shall be two or three years old and fill a useful place in language.

It is reported that Florida's notorious divorce law making insanity a ground for legal separation is to be repealed. The satisfaction over this awakening of public conscience, however, is considerably modified when it is remembered that the men at whose behest it was passed have taken advantage of it, and that no one else in the state cared for it or wanted it.

The Denver newspapers joyfully dilate upon the fact that Miss Maude Fealy, pronounced by a Paris commission to be the most beautiful woman in the world, "grew up in Denver." They suppress the fact, however, that the young woman, when she came to years of understanding, left the town for good.

The Ohio Republicans have decided upon Senator Hanna for temporary chairman and Senator Foraker for permanent chairman of their state convention. It is a little thing this to do unless there would have to be a contest, otherwise.

It is now stated by an eminent bacteriologist that typhoid fever is not due to bacilli, but to chemical changes in the blood. There is still room for another guess.

Senator Clark has never directly or indirectly asserted that the line from Salt Lake to Los Angeles, and the Denver, Northwestern & Pacific, is a gift of sentiment.

DOUGLAS OF OHIO.

THE HON. ALFRED DOUGLAS is evidently an Ohioan who must be "shown." Mr. Douglas, in common with several other gentlemen, has an aspiration to be governor of the Buckeye state, and in the course of the promotion of that ambition has secured for his cause various and sundry delegations.

Some time since, however, the triumvirate who control the destinies of the Republican party in Ohio, Senators Hanna and Foraker and Gen. B. Cox, caused it to become known that they had made the selection for this year in the person of Myron T. Herrick, and that, therefore, the only thing for the other aspirants to do was to withdraw as gracefully as possible. Most of them have done so. Mr. Douglas is an exception. He still believes that he has a right to seek the honor despite the fiat of the triumvirate.

He nevertheless is willing to pay this tender tribute to the senior senator. "I have said from the beginning that Senator Hanna had it in his power to nominate anyone this year for governor if he saw fit to exert it." Mr. Douglas must indeed be new to the game of politics if he believes that Mr. Hanna will fail to exercise any power which he may possess, especially with the senatorial seat in jeopardy.

The guilelessness of the aspirant may be further noted when he remarks, "I cannot help feeling sure, yet, that it will be wise to leave the convention free to make the nomination from among the men aspiring to it." Good business men, like Senator Hanna, rarely leave their property in the control of others, and it is somewhat surprising that Mr. Alfred Douglas should imagine that the senator would be so careless, not to say reckless, with regard to the Ohio legislature.

The diplomatic conditions in Washington which demand that the German minister be seated between the Turkish minister and the Venezuelan charge d'affaires are enough for a casus belli with Emperor Wilhelm in the leading role.

President Roosevelt is to be compensated for his forbearance in Yellowstone park by a big buffalo hunt in Utah. It will require a change in the schedule, but the chances are the itinerary will be broken.

The railroads have caused it to become known that no matter how great the crop this year, they will handle it without delay. This evidence of reform will be greeted by the farmers with joy unconfined.

The news dispatches tell us that William K. Vanderbilt is to be married quietly. We should hope that the gentleman will not find it necessary to employ a brass band, even though he has the price.

John D. Rockefeller's statement that golf has restored his health may cause a demand upon him from the promoters of this fashionable outdoor sport for that million dollars.

Late Press Comment

MR. ROOSEVELT'S TARIFF RECORD.

Mr. Roosevelt is a young man still, but when he was much younger than he is now he was a free trader of such vigorous hue that on one occasion he announced that he would "die for free trade." Practically, he has since learned nothing concerning the tariff, but he has accepted the post hoc propter hoc sort of philosophy to which protectionists have resorted in these days of the degeneracy of their doctrine, and he is therefore, ready to say with home market clubs and other like disinterested authorities that because we are now prosperous we are so because of the tariff law. This is utter folly, of course, but the president does not know it, because since the day when he was a crusading knight of free trade he has learned that the doctrine of extreme protection is essential to the life of his party. Mr. Roosevelt, besides being very young, perhaps younger than David Copperfield seemed to be to Steerforth's valet, is an ardent politician. He has, indeed, the disposition to "reform within the party," but this disposition does not carry him very far, once it has brought him in conflict with the party leaders who write the platforms and make the nominations. So, after trying for a time to be that impossible thing, a free trade Republican, he has gradually settled down into a protectionist of the most advanced type. He is of the school which says "stand pat," "no revision at all," "revision only by its friends," which being interpreted means revision only by those who insist upon maintaining the existing exorbitant rates of duty which are so enormously increasing the cost of living in this country and which are also, incidentally giving to some of the trusts, those which are most flagrant from the president's own point of view, that monopoly of the home market that substantially kills the competition which the president believes to be the life of healthful trade.—(Harper's Weekly.

THE WELCOME RAILROAD NEWS.

We have this morning the welcome news that the final negotiations have been completed which assures the speedy and unrestricted completion of the Salt Lake & Los Angeles railroad. Mr. Clark has fought his fight against all opposing interests, and has won triumphantly. His line will be wholly independent, an open gateway for the Moffat road, the Burlington or any other, an open gateway to the coast. It will shorten the distance nearly a half and the time by 12 hours, between this city and Los Angeles. It is a road that will be built on a cash basis, no bonds, no stock to be put on the market. $25,000,000 is in the bank on call to pay for the construction, which will now be pushed vigorously from both ends of the line, and in about 18 months from this time trains will be running the full length of the line, from here to Los Angeles.

It is a grand result, in which we have had full faith from the first knowledge of Senator Clark's connection with it and the co-operation of Senator Kearns and other local men of prominence. In spite of blackmailing, knocking and idiotic railing the enterprise is one of the great works of this western region. In its influence for good upon this city and state it is impossible to exaggerate its importance. The line will be a great through route from the coast to all the region north and east, a preferred line for the fruit shipments. The construction at the southwest end of the line is already 120 miles at this end, 441 miles. It is a grand outcome for a much-abused enterprise and the people will fervently rejoice in the successful outcome of the long-waited railroad from this city to the southwest coast. We can all join hands in jubilant demonstrations over the gratifying results and outlook.—(Salt Lake Tribune.

PREDICTS NEW NATIONAL AIR

"A Hot Time in the Old Town" is to be the national air, according to Professor Georg Edward of the German department of Northwestern university. The Lorelei was the subject for discussion in one of Professor Edward's classes Friday, and he enlarged upon the topic to the discussion of national airs. He then said the music of "Hot Time" was in perfect accord with the yankee spirit and there was no other tune so full of action and so calculated to arouse enthusiasm.

"The charge up San Juan hill was made to its music and the band played 'A Hot Time' when the United States soldiers entered Peking and today they are singing it in the Philippines. It is bound to become the national air," said Professor Edward.

Professor Edward is a native of Germany and came to America during the World's fair year as correspondent of a German newspaper. He was so favorably impressed with this country, however, that he decided to remain, and now declares that he will never return to Germany to live.—(Chicago Record-Herald.

IMPORTANCE OF IRRIGATION.

The forests should be preserved to protect the water sources and the lumber supply of the future, the mining laws should be improved to give greater encouragement and protection to prospectors and mining operators and greater revenue to the reclamation fund, the grazing districts should be put under control in order that the range grasses may not be destroyed and that barren ranges may be restored. The present situation is a serious menace to the meat supply of the nation.

In the reclamation fund, created by the national irrigation act, there is now about $10,000,000, which is being drawn upon to meet the cost of surveys and investigations now being conducted. In some districts of Utah, Colorado, California, Arizona and other states, where favorable reservoir locations are found, the people are planning to shape local laws and conditions to meet the demands of government irrigation officials.—(Gunton's Magazine.

OPEN PARLIAMENT

Good Roads Association Favored Reynolds.

To the Editor of the Gazette:

Dear Sir: The El Paso Good Roads association, of which I have the honor to be secretary, strongly regrets the action of Mayor Harris in his appointment of street commissioner. Mr. W. S. Reynolds, the former street commissioner, was an intelligent and faithful officer of the city, and showed in every way in his power a desire to do his best in improving the roads of Colorado Springs.

Mr. Reynolds was indorsed by the Good Roads association and by General Wm. J. Palmer to succeed himself. Notwithstanding these indorsements another man has been chosen for the position and no matter what amount of political pressure or reward for political services has been brought to bear upon Mayor Harris it would seem that the above indorsement should have carried more weight.

I regret very much this action of Mayor Harris as I feel that the cause of good roads, which is acknowledged to be such an important one in this city, will suffer a set back through this action.

Very truly yours,

Benjamin C. Allen,

Secretary El Paso Good Roads Association.

SHORT STORIES

Millions in a Satchel

A small, slight and somewhat ordinary appearing man walked into the First National bank at Wall street and Broadway, New York, one day not long ago. In his hand he carried a satchel that at once attracted the suspicious attendant, who had an unusually keen eye open for nefarious strangers as explosions bent.

"Whom do you wish to see?" asked the attendant.

"The president, Mr. Baker."

"He is extremely busy just now and cannot be seen."

"Then say to Mr. Baker to the vice president."

But the wary attendant interrupted with: "He is at a board meeting and won't return for two hours."

"Then the cashier will answer my purpose," quietly observed the stranger, advancing in the direction of the rail that divides the private from the public offices. Here he was met by the cashier with the remark: "Well, sir, what can we do for you?" while the attendant stood by closely watching every action of the bearded caller.

"I have seven million dollars in gold notes that I desire to loan at special rates," said the stranger unconcernedly opening the satchel and displaying to the astonished gaze of his two spectators numerous stacks of the best paper legalized by this government. The attendant gasped. The cashier caught his breath and asked:

"And your name is?"

"William A. Clark of Montana."

One College Prank.

In a college town two students were passing by a painless dentist's office shortly after nightfall when one of them, as if he had thought of something remarkably funny, suddenly ran and took down the sign about a yard long that was hanging from two nails. The next morning when the Latin class was assembled, every student as he took his seat and looked toward the teacher's platform seemed to be unable to keep back a burst of laughter. The Professor of Latin belonged to a type of which a specimen can be found in many a college faculty. He had no idea of how to keep order in his class and would fly into a rage at the smallest interruption and launch forth into a tirade of abuse, forgetting all about the lesson. In this way he had won for himself the nickname of "Cussing Tommy." This morning the laughter of so many of the class seemed to infuriate him and he began to apply all kinds of epithets to the offenders, without diminishing the merriment, however. At last he noticed that everybody was looking over his head, turning around he discovered with continually increasing rage, the sign, and the words on it were:

"Gas Administrated."—(N. Y. Times.

Sticks and Sticks.

"Man is a peculiar animal," began Mrs. Farrant as she squatted herself in one of the easy chairs that stood about the heavily carpeted assembly room of the Woman's Husband Reform Association of America.

"What's the trouble now?" asked Mrs. Preisge.

"Why," replied Mrs. F., "before I was married, my husband would carry my golf sticks for me willingly miles and miles—"

"Yes."

"And now he grumbles unmercifully when I ask him to go into the cellar and carry a few sticks of firewood up stairs for me."—(New York Times.

"I have never before given my endorsement for any medicine, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has added so much to my life and happiness that I feel like making an exception in this case. For two years every month I would have two days of severe pain and could find no relief, but one day while visiting a friend I ran across Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,—she had used it with the best results and advised me to try it. I found that it worked wonders with me, I now experience no pain, and only had to use a few bottles to bring about this wonderful change."—Miss Alice M. CONTRACT WILL BE LET WITHIN A FEW WEEKS

The contract for the construction of the new $100,000 addition to St. Francis hospital will be let today. Eight contractors are now figuring on the work, and as soon as the different bids are received by the sisters at the hospital the contract will be let to the lowest bidder, providing that the bids are satisfactory. Brother Adrian, of the Franciscan order, of St. Louis, will superintend the letting of the contract. He will leave tomorrow or next day for California, but will pass through this city on his return to St. Louis in about a month and inspect the work.

SHERIFF WILL BE AT WORLD'S FAIR

Sheriff W. R. Gilbert, as colonel of Governor Peabody's staff, left the city yesterday afternoon for Denver on the way to attend the dedication exercises of the St. Louis World's fair, April 30. Dr. P. O. Hanford, surgeon general, also expects to make the trip.

They will meet the other members of the staff at Denver and leave for St. Louis in a private car. They will return in company with President Roosevelt and Governor Peabody. Sheriff Gilbert and the rest of the staff will be at the Southern hotel while in St. Louis.

BRICKLAYERS MAY JOIN COUNCIL

In all probability the local Bricklayers union will join the Building Trades council within the next week or two. At the regular meeting of the union Monday night the matter was thoroughly dicussed and it seems to be the general opinion that the union should enter the council. The union was a member of the council until about three years ago, at which time trouble over the concrete work on the Antlers hotel building caused its withdrawal. The matter has been settled, however, and it is said the union will soon go into the council again.

Time Limit for Physicians' Meeting Lengthened—Railroad Men to Attend Important Meeting at Portland.

The Colorado Springs & Cripple Creek District railway, the Short Line, will soon be in trackage connection with every large mine in the Cripple Creek district. Important work on branch lines has been ordered and work has begun on a branch from the line running to the Portland mine. The new branch track will lead to the ore and coal bins of the Jo Dandy mine, and begins at a point on the Portland branch three-fourths of a mile from the Jo Dandy property. There will be no trestle or bridge work, but the contract for grading calls for the removal of much earth in the cuts that will of necessity be built. Heretofore, the Short Line has not been receiving ore from the Jo Dandy.

The track will, of course, be of standard gauge and construction work will be rushed. Other work in the district of extensions and betterments is progressing rapidly.

Colorado railroad officials are on the way to a meeting of the Transcontinental Passenger association at Portland, Ore. The meeting is of interest as rates for several large conventions and gatherings in Transcontinental territory, especially the western states, will be authorized; tourist travel to Colorado will be naturally augmented by what stopover privileges are granted holders of these reduced rate tickets.

Mayor Harris Gives Interview on Work of the Week Ended.

The elevator boy in the Giddings block has retired to private life. He made the announcement yesterday afternoon, with a sigh of content. "I ain't cut out f'r politics," he confided. "I'm too tender-hearted to butt into dese guys wots got jobs. Seems to me," he reflected, "th' cuttin' out in my case was all done by de may'r—he didn't even reward me, overworked as I was by his millyun of callers, by askin' me if I would take de dump boss.

"Say," he grinned, "dat would 'a put me on top de heap, sure Mike! Financially, I'd be a bloomin' boo-kay, an' I need a change of air. Dis job ain't wot it's cracked up to be, 'spechially durin' de pie-hunt'in' season. I ain't blamin' de may'r f'r gittin' 'leated; he's all right, but he ain't onto his job. If I hadn't been lookin' out f'r wot de wise guys call 'pie' f'r myself, I'd a-piped up an' said: 'May'r, f'r de love of humans, paste up a notis along about 4 p. m. every day sayin': "Restaurant closed f'r Repairs Open Tomorrow." I'd a-hung de notis on de front door an' instead of workin' 14 days a week, I'd be puttin' in but seven. Golly, but how my arms useter ache! An' not a two-bit piece f'r a bottle o' linnymint from enny of de multitude. Dey wasn't thinkin' of de elevator boy; not much, w'en dey would be makin' a hot-foot down de hall before de elevator could be stopped."

The elevator boy waxed indignant at the recollection of the army, irreverently known as the Pie Brigade, which has been charging on Mayor Harris for the past two weeks. The recollection was enough to make him tired.

"Of course, de may'r ain't expected to take care of two t'ousand pie eaters," he summed up, "but he needn't made 'em swear like pirates if he'll take a frien's advice an' run out de notis in de future about de restaurant bein' closed f'r repairs, an' let me do de rest."

Mayor Harris had a comparatively quiet day of it yesterday. Not only the elevator boy but several score of candidates for appointive offices had retired to private life, and the sum total of the callers on the city's new executive reached the comparatively insignificent figure of 54.

The mayor outlined the first work of the new city administration. It will be to take up the matters covered in the bond issues that were carried at the election and the council will, at the next meeting, May 4, go into the duties devolving upon it in putting into effect the plans of the administration just ended. The important extensions to the water system will be carried out at once, the mayor announces. The new city hall will also be among the first matters put into shape.

A Little Early.

"It is too early," said Mayor Harris, "to give any complete announcement of what matters will first be put through, or what business will first engage the attention of the new administration. We can tell better after the council begins work. The bond issues are the most important work before us at present and the carrying out of the plans under which they were issued is already engaging our attention."

A competitive examinat on will be held before architects and a member, or members, of the council forming an examining board, for the benefit of applicants for the appointive position of building inspector left vacant by the resignation of E. G. Cray. G. M. Young, a contractor, has filed an application for the position and there are several others whose names are being urged. Alderman Capell, who was in the race, has not filed an application, but his friends are still working for him, it is reported at city hall. The activity in his candidacy has dwindled since publicity was given charges of "grafting" made against him for this very purpose.

No opposition has developed in the candidacy of Will D. Waltman, present assistant city engineer, for the same position, Mr. Waltman has the indorsement of City Engineer Case. The third position, not acted upon Monday night at the first meeting of the new council, is that of storekeeper. Among the applicants for the job are: G. H. H. Hall, W. H. Gandy, E. G. Pinnock, D. C. Work and H. T. McCauley. The contest for this office is spirited.

Police Officers Dismissed.

The dismissal by the mayor of Police Officers C. A. Williams, H. Gillingham, R. C. Hall, W. D. Shearwell, William James and C. C. McReynolds caused talk throughout the city yesterday, and it developed that at least four of the men are charged with not being as good workers for the Republican party as they might be. It is said this was especially the case during the last election and Chief King, thinking certain officers were not doing their whole duty by the Republican party, made changes in "beats" or the certain territory the men under suspicion covered. In one instance a patrolman was moved to a beat on the outskirts of the city where he patrolled the cacti and sage brush until after election.

No direct charges have been lodged against the men discharged.

Voorhees Files Report.

John A. Voorhees, former city treasurer, has filed his monthly report, accompanied by bonds and coupons paid. In a letter which City Clerk MacMillan has put on the records, Mr. Voorhees thanks the members of the old council, especially the members of the finance committee, for courtesies extended to him during his term of office, and he speaks from the new council the same courtesy and consideration shown him, for the present incumbent of the office, W. H. Hoagland. Mr. Voorhees, as was announced in the Gazette yesterday, will remain in the treasurer's office to assist City Treasurer Hoagland until the new treasurer is fully conversant with the duties of the office.

Grand Army Post Discusses an Important Meeting.

Plans for Observance of Memorial Day Outlined—New Trustees Will Purchase All Supplies for One Year.

According to Post Commander Dana, the members of Colorado Springs pod No. 22, G. A. R., have not yet been invited to take part in the reception to President Roosevelt when he visits this city but that they are prepared to take part, if called upon. It has been suggested to Commander Dana that the members of the post march in a body to the depot on the day of President Roosevelt's visit and form a line on each side of the route that the president will take in his drive from the station. The matter was discussed at the regular open meeting of the post in the old court house last evening but no action was taken.

The various committees to take charge of the arrangements for the observance of Memorial day were appointed by Commander Dana. These committees will report at the next business meeting to be held May 5. At that time a speaker for the occasion will be selected and the final arrangements made for the observance of the day. The committees appointed last night follow: Program, General L. E. Sherman, chairman, A. E. Vest and J. M. Wooley; speakers and hall, J. K. Fleal, chairman, Otis Remick and J. W. Theresa Property Will Not Be Worked—Attorneys for Majority Stockholders Say They May Apply to Supreme Court for Writ of Prohibition.

The decision of Judge Seeds yesterday in the Golden Cycle controversy in effect, continues the injunction against General Manager L. E. Hill of the Golden Cycle properties, and there will be no working of the Theresa property in any manner until the final disposition of the suit for an accounting.

According to statements made yesterday by the attorneys for the majority stockholders, they are planning to apply to the supreme court for a writ of prohibition, directed against Judge Seeds and all the other judges of the district court, to prohibit them from further hearing the matters as brought up by the petition of the minority stockholders. It has not yet been stated by the attorneys for the majority when this application will be made but they say that if they finally decide upon this course the writ will be filed within the next few days.

Under the ruling of Judge Seeds yesterday the suit for an accounting and the appointment of a receiver, will come up for final hearing May 19. The attorneys for the respective sides failed to reach an agreement in regard to the working of the ore in the Theresa mine and the order of the court passed the whole case for final hearing to the first day of the May term. The propositions under consideration included one made by Judge Seeds and another made by the attorneys for the majority. The attorneys for the minority maintained that no working of the Theresa property whatever should be allowed, and refused to accede to any other proposition. The order of Judge Seeds under such circumstances means the continuance of the injunction, now in force.

The reported sale yesterday of several lots at the corner of Lincoln and Fifth streets, Colorado City, to the United States Reduction & Refining company gave rise to the belief that the new club house the company will build for its employes at the Standard mill will be located at this point. The ground is in close proximity to the postoffice and within easy distance of the mill.

The report could not be confirmed among the officers of the company in Colorado Springs last evening; among real estate dealers in Colorado City the belief is general the ground has been purchased and that the club house will be located on it.

The statement was made when the plans for a club house were first considered, that the building would be erected in the city on property owned by the company.

The architects have the plans almost completed and ground will be broken within the next few days for what will stand as a model club house. The building with furnishings will cost $15,000 and will be duplicated at Florence, where the company also has mills. Both structures will be of pressed brick, of handsome design and complete in every particular.

ALLEGED MURDER EVIDENCE

Colored People Will Testify Against Trusty—Information Has Been Filed Charging Him With Murder of Wife.

"If the colored people of this town could get at John Trusty, it might go hard with him," stated Detectives Joel Atkinson and James B. Gregory yesterday afternoon. Atkinson and Gregory have been detailed on the case by Chief King, and the above statement was made after they had put in most of yesterday in search of additional evidence against Trusty, who has now been formally charged with the murder of his wife on the night of April 18, by the filing of an information in the district court.

"There has been a complete change of sentiment among the colored people of the city," said the detectives, "and with but few exceptions we find that those who had formerly believed Trusty innocent are now coming forward and giving testimony to prove his guilt. We have got possession of sufficient evidence in addition to that brought out at the coroner's inquest to convict Trusty of the murder of his wife without doubt. This testimony, however, will not be divulged by the police, for the reason that we wish to make our case as complete as possible before we go to trial, and we do not wish to have it become public, any further than we can help, before that time."

Trusty a Wreck.

Trusty himself has been almost a wreck since the night of the murder, and has slept but little during all that time. The news of the action of the coroner's jury added to his previous condition and he has been in a sort of stupor since. Chief King stated yesterday that Trusty refused to talk and sat most of the time in a corner of his cell with his face buried in his hands. Detectives Atkinson and Greg-

PRESIDENT EARLY WILL SUMMON COMMITTEES

AND STRENGTHEN EXECUTIVE BOARD

President Livermore of the Christian Endeavor union of this city reports that preliminary arrangements for the coming national convention to be held in Denver are progressing satisfactorily, several new members having been added to the different committees. J. M. Hawkins will take the chairmanship of the entertainment committee. Slips have been sent to the different societies of the city asking that the names of the prominent workers be sent in to the union in order that they may be placed on the committees.

The reception committee is to be composed of at least 100 members as it is desired to make an especial effort to greet the visitors and care for them while here. The entertainment committee will soon make a canvass of the boarding houses to ascertain how many people each can handle and it is understood that advance contracts will be made in some cases.

The local union desires to raise money from the business men of the city to assist in defraying the necessary expenses of entertaining the delegates while they are sojourning in this city and vicinity. Denver business men have contributed the sum of $12,000 to the expense fund and it is calculated that this will pretty nearly cover the outlay.

The chorus committee is working assiduously and several selections have already been made for the leading parts. It is expected that the Colorado Springs union will send 100 singers to Denver to join the big chorus which has been planned to furnish music during the convention.

SCHOLTON IS A CANDIDATE FOR THE CONVENTION

The Typographical union, by a vote of 57 to 18, has decided to send a delegate to the next international convention of the organization which will be called at Washington, D. C., the first week in August. The work of the convention will include all important matters connected with the organization. One of the most important will be the question of the removal of headquarters to this city. H. A. Scholton has announced himself as a candidate for the position and will look after the interests of Colorado Springs in the matter of headquarters removal. So far there have been no other candidates announced and unless unlooked-for opposition develops Scholton's election seems certain. The election will be held May 20.

MEDICAL BOARD REMAINS

The members of the state board of medical examiners at their special meeting in Denver yesterday, decided not to tender their resignations and will continue working under the provisions of the old law. The matter of the governor's veto of the medical bill was brought up but no action was taken in reference to it. Dr. C. F. Stough of this city, a member of the board, did not attend the meeting but communicated with the other members by telephone. Upon learning that the decision of the majority was to retain their positions he decided to abide by such action and will continue a member of the board.

WEDDING OF MISS BEMIS AND FREDERICK MORGAN TAYLOR

The marriage of Miss Alice Bemis and Frederick Morgan Taylor occurred yesterday afternoon in the Bemis residence, 506 North Cascade avenue, at 4:30 o'clock.

A small circle of relatives and long-time friends were witnesses of the ceremony, which, after the impressive Episcopal ritual was pronounced by the Rev. Dr. James B. Gregg, pastor of the First Congregational church.

Miss Katherine Adams attended the bride as maid of honor. She was becomingly gowned in delicate blue silk mull with a becoming hat to compare, and carried pink roses.

The bride was gowned in cream oriental lace with a full veil of tulle, caught with a half wreath of tiny white roses. The bridal bouquet was of pearl roses.

Unattended, the groom awaited the bride at the improvised altar of Norway spruce arranged thicket-wise. Every window and archway was thickly trellised with smilax tendrils; and there was a profusion of pink roses, pink carnations, white snapdragons, violets and other choice flowers throughout the apartments.

Among those present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bemis, parents of the bride, Mrs. Morgan Taylor, the mother of the groom, Farwell Bemis, of Boston, Mass., Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Gregg, Mrs. W. F. Slocum, Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Parsons, Mrs. A. E. Blackmer, Mrs. B. F. D. Adams, Miss Brinley, Judge and Mrs. H. G. Lunt, Miss Lunt, Dr. Josephine Peavey, Harry T. Lowe, Harry Davidson and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left last evening for a pleasure trip.

A BONANZA MINE IN POVERTY GULCH

Very Rich Ore Opened in the Abe Lincoln, Thus Verifying an Early Prediction by W. S. Stratton—Conditions in Carbonate Queen of the Ophir Company Show Steady Improvement.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, April 21.—A bonanza mine almost within the city limits of Cripple Creek has been opened up in Poverty gulch where ore that will run into the thousands of dollars per ton is now being taken out less than 1,000 feet from the National hotel. The new find is on ground owned by the Stratton estate. The strike is practically not a new one, production having been going on for some time, but for some reason the management has thought best to keep the details from the public until today.

The ore was first encountered in a level run out at 300 feet from the Abe Lincoln shaft in a westerly direction. The level is now 150 feet in length and for the last 50 feet it has been in ore. The mineral that has been sent out from this drift has averaged better than $60 to the ton for the coarser rock, while screenings ran better than $100 per ton. At the present time the breast is in ore from which any assay desired can be obtained, and if it should continue to improve, a jewelry shop scope, similar to the one Stratton had in the Independence, can be started.

"I do not know exactly what we have in the Lincoln shaft," said Manager Rice to your representative this morning, "but I do know that we have some wonderfully rich ore." The point where the rich drift is located is a little south of the shaft on the old Lillie claim, and it may be on the extension of the Arcadia vein. I don't know how wide the mineral is, but I do know that it fills the drift. Some specimens are wonderfully rich. The ore is a granite quartz, and is similar to that mined long ago in the Independence."

The first mining property Stratton bought after he struck it rich in the Independence was the Arcadia claim. At that time he remarked that he believed another Independence mine would be opened up on that claim or the adjoining one. It was this faith that induced the bonanza king to buy up all ground in Poverty gulch, and today it shows very plainly that his wisdom has at last been demonstrated.

Ophir.

Conditions in the Carbonate Queen property on Battle mountain, belonging to the Ophir company, are showing a steady improvement as development proceeds. The recent strike made there is now proved in two levels and the ore shoot continues to get better as the drift is extended further to the north.

The vein when it leaves the property of the Ophir company goes into a fraction that the well-known mining engineer, Charles J. Moore, recently secured a lease on, where Mr. Moore is now operating, having arrangements made with the Sunset-Eclipse for the right to work through the 250-foot level of the latter property.

From the trend of the vein, the ore shoot in the May territory should be encountered at any shot now, and when he does strike the ore, there is no doubt that he will have a good thing, as from the present dip and trend of the vein it is maintained that there will be at least 300 feet of stoping ground on this territory, and it is possible that it may run to the 600-foot length.

Good shipments are being maintained by the Ophir company, and as work is being pushed north, the ore is showing a decided gain in the value contained in the rock.

NEW BODY OPENED ON SPEARFISH PROPERTY

D. N. Heizer of the Spearfish Gold Mining & Reduction company returned yesterday from Spearfish where he has been for the past week on business connected with the affairs of the company. Mr. Heizer states that a new body of ore has been found and a winze sunk to a depth of 40 feet without discovering the bottom of the deposit. The original find was made at a point in the floor of one of the drifts which was run into the ore body below the deposit and it was not supposed that the ore would be found below that point. The ore averages $6 to the ton, which is slightly better than the average of the production of the property which is slightly above $5 per ton. A check is expected by Mr. Heizer to cover the next dividend to be paid on May 1. The mill is running on 200 tons of ore daily and the company is piling up a nice treasury fund above the dividend which is paid monthly amounting to something over $9,000. Mr. Heizer reports that the condition of the property is improving and that considerable work is being done in the way of development in addition to the production of ore, a large force of men being employed in mining the ore.

PREPARING TO DEVELOP SOUTH DUTY CLAIMS

H. B. Neff leaves this morning for Chicago in the interests of the Valley Forge Gold Mining company, owning property in Boulder county. The property is being actively developed by the company, the present work consisting in extending the tunnel to open up what is known as the Fortune dike, which traverses the property. Along this dike several good mines have been opened and the Valley Forge expects to find an equally good body of ore in its property.

The tunnel has been run a distance of about 900 feet and it is expected that the dike will be encountered before a distance of 1,000 feet from the mouth of the tunnel is reached. The breast of the tunnel has attained a depth of close to 700 feet from the surface. A considerable body of high grade ore was opened in the tunnel about 150 feet from the entrance and considerable stoping done by the former owners. No effort was made at that time to sink but the present owners expect to start sinking as soon as the tunnel has reached the point sought after. A small shipment of rock was made a few months ago from the old stopes and the company netted over $100 to the ton, some of the ore running as high as $600, the average being something like $200 per ton.

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

The mining stock market was again dull and but little interest was manifest in trading in any department. The result of this apathy was that stocks were weak all along the line. Doctor-Jack Pot was off to 8¼ and Findley sold down to 15¼ while Gold Dollar dropped to 5¼, the opening sales being at 5⅝. Golden Cycle held its own at 73½ and Isabella was stronger at 16½ and 16¼. Elkton sold at unchanged prices and Work was fractionally higher at 6⅞.

In the prospect department Gold Knob sold at 1⅞ and Little Bessie was weak at 4⅝, while Little Puck sold down from 3⅞ to 3⅝. Old Gold was unchanged at 4⅝ and Rose Maud was stationery at 2¼. In the miscellaneous department Spar was the only stock traded in, $25 worth of this stock going at $5 per 1,000 shares. In none of the stocks was there any heavy trading.

ROCK'S FRIEND PUCK

Smith and associates, sub-leasing on the Little Puck property on Squaw mountain, are getting some assays that run away up, according to D. N. Heizer, who stated yesterday that during the past few weeks assays running as high as $6,000 to the ton were being obtained and that several assays between $500 and $8,000 had been obtained. The lessees are connecting the shaft with the tunnel level and expect to have the work completed before May 1. It is reported that there is a large body of ore in sight which will be developed as soon as the connection between the two workings is made. The ore will then be taken through the tunnel thereby saving a considerable hoisting expense which is now necessary if a heavy production was started. Occasional shipments are being sent out from the property and it is understood that the returns are sufficient to meet the expense of connecting the tunnel with the shaft.

GOING EAST TO PROMOTE MINING

C. P. Campbell and C. A. Van Horn will leave today for the east where they are going in the interests of several mining companies. Mr. Campbell represents the American Consolidated company operating in the Taos county district in New Mexico and also the Tarry Gold property, owning claims in the Tarryall district near Lake George, and property in Boulder county. Mr. Campbell expects to visit the large cities of the country and will be gone about six weeks.

EASTERN MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

Report from J. S. Eache & Co. to Otis & Hough.

New York, April 21.—J. S. Eache & Co.—Traders were bullish and bought a large line of active stocks. In the afternoon the buying slackened but the tone remained very firm. Missouri Pacific leading. There was same bullish talk on Southern Pacific, which developed into quite a buying movement. Buying was based, it is said, on the talk that pool holdings have been absorbed by the Harriman interest. We believe that on any sharp upturn, profits should be taken from this out. We believe market will sell considerably higher, but think the advance in past week will invite profit-taking from now on.

McIntyre & Marshall—There was a general disposition among some of the larger operators and the western contingent to continue a rather aggressive movement on the bull side of the market today and with the professional element also inclined to work for a further rally the buying clearly predominated. The trading, in fact, had all the characteristics of an attempt of those interests and the various pools to stimulate bullish sentiment and create a good market for the resumption of business when the exchange starts in its new building Thursday. An idea has prevailed that it would be something in the nature of a hoo-doo to begin business there with a bear market and consequently the present movement has the personal sympathy of the majority of traders.

Most traders quit long of the market, having refrained from securing profits on the idea that some attempt will be made Thursday morning to arouse bullish enthusiasm and start things in a livelier way and that profits can be taken then to better advantage. Prospects of another fair bank statement Saturday.

Zimmerman & Forshay—There was large volume of business transacted today and prices improved generally. There was some commission house business but the larger aggregate of dealings appeared to reflect renewed aggressive operations by numerous pools, and some of the larger financial interests. The money market continued to work toward ease and a favorable bank statement is expected for next Saturday. Fresh reports of the exceptionally prosperous outlook in the southwest stimulated a pronounced upward movement in the Gould group. Railway list showed substantial gains throughout. There were the usual realizing sales on the eve of a holiday but market closed strong though quiet.

CHICAGO GRAIN & PROVISIONS.

Furnished by Otis & Hough, Bankers and Brokers, 127 Pike's Peak Avenue.

Chicago, April 21.—Wheat—Liverpool unchanged to ½ lower, Paris ¼ lower to ¼ higher, Antwerp ⅝ higher. Market here was unsettled and on the whole weak. Broomhall reported continent selling in Liverpool on the more seasonable weather in France. The southwest reported French re-selling wheat recently bought there for shipment. The export demand so far this week has been much poorer than it was last week. As much of the recent bullish feeling has been based on the bad weather abroad and the export demand, the change in conditions, made more or less selling. During the day there was a sharp break but at the extreme decline prices were again supported by Armour buying. Combination of uncertain weather and uncertainty of one man's action makes a very unsatisfactory condition. Without the aid of a liberal export demand it will be a difficult proposition for Armour to sell his wheat except at a loss. Realizing this, the trade is becoming smaller day by day and more nervous. Outside interest, both active and dormant, is small. Bradstreet makes the world's visible decrease 7,000,000 against 3,200,000 last year. Even this bullish item failed to stimulate general confidence. Minneapolis mills have resumed operations, farmers' deliveries from the northwest are still very small. In the southwest they seem to be increasing. It seems probable that Armour will not permit any serious break in this market at present and on this theory we are inclined to think we would buy wheat on the soft spots and take profits as we saw them. Estimated cars, 30.

Corn—Liverpool unchanged to ⅛ higher. Market here was very dull and steady. The weather throughout the west is about normal, with possibly a tendency towards something warmer. Small receipts are to some extent offset by little larger offerings in the interior. Cash demand is fair. Contract stocks, however, show but little decrease. There is a good deal of July corn in strong hands, but the operations from day to day are small. Estimated cars, 30.

Oats—Market was quiet and easier. The covering of shorts last few days has been quite general and there was some profit-taking in a scattered way which caused an easier tone. Cash situation remains about moderate both in respect of receipts and demand. Contract stock showed a little larger than had been expected. The tendency toward better weather was also a mildly depressing factor. Estimated cars, 45.

Provisions—Market was unchanged for pork and lard and a little better for ribs. Receipts of hogs, 63,000 against 55,000 last year. There was not much doing in a speculative way, except buying of ribs through brokers which was generally credited to the Armour interest. There was some local pit trade but general speculative interest is slow and the outsider as a rule is disposed to regard current prices as too high.

COTTON MARKET.

Report of McIntyre & Marshall to William A. Otis & Co.:

New York, April 21.—As a result of today's trading the decline of about a half cent per pound in the summer options seems to have culminated and a feeling is gaining ground that the cotton market has done its worst for a time. It is not alone that the market has been rather well sold out and a fair-sized short interest established, but also because of the fact that the southern spot markets have now shown the same softness that has characterized the contract markets and notwithstanding the very heavy movement the 10-cent level has not been invaded at the more important points. Meantime the price of the summer options in New York beyond May have reached figures which have tempted the shorts to cover and brought out some buying of the better class, based upon their relative cheapness. Undoubtedly many contracts have been covered up on which actual deliveries were contemplated and this may prove an element of strength ultimately. The market is therefore technically improved and should other influences change for the better a more important reaction may take place.

NEW UNIFORMS FOR BLUE COATS

Negotiations are on for the purchase of summer uniforms for the police department. Bids have been asked for from the leading clothiers of this city and Denver, and it is thought that within a month or six weeks every member of the department, from the chief to the patrolmen, will be supplied with a new coating. Chief King stated yesterday that there would probably be some change in the make of the uniforms; the coats to be longer and buttoned up close around the neck.

LOHMAN CONTINUES TO IMPROVE RAPIDLY

No change for the worse developed in the condition of George Lohman yesterday and in the opinion of the attending physicians, the man who was struck on the head by falling beams at the Telluride mill Sunday morning, sustaining a fractured skull and other injuries, will recover. Lohman's condition was reported at St. Francis hospital last night to be very much improved.

MODERN WOODMEN—The degree team of the Modern Woodmen of America will give an entertainment in Woodman hall tonight. All Woodmen and their friends are invited. Refreshments will be served.

Due to the advertising the state has received and the active canvass being made in Texas and the eastern states for tourists, through illustrated lectures and by other means, a large percentage of excursionists will stop over this summer and early fall in Colorado on tickets reading to destinations west of the state. General Passenger Agents Speers of the Midland and Fisher of the Colorado & Southern, passed through Colorado Springs on their way to Portland.

Ticket agents have received a circular of interest to Colorado Springs physicians who intend going to New Orleans to attend the sessions of the American Medical association in annual convention. The short limit on the tickets, extending to May 12, the circular states, may be extended to May 30 by depositing the ticket with the joint agent at New Orleans. The convention meets in New Orleans the first week next month.

The first excursion of the season will be run next Sunday by the Colorado & Southern to Pueblo and return on account of the initiation ceremonies and banquet in that city of the Knights of Columbus. A special train will leave Colorado Springs at 11:30 a. m., 150 knights, it is expected, will attend, and 75 will join the Colorado Springs contingent here, coming over the Short Line from Cripple Creek. A large attendance is expected from Denver and the knights from the three cities will proceed south from Colorado Springs in the same train.

sisted by the members of the Woman's Relief corps and the Ladies of the G. A. R. The transportation committee will endeavor to make arrangements with the Colorado & Southern toward the running of a special excursion train on Memorial day to convey the members of the post and affiliated orders and others to the cemetery.

Three trustees for the post were elected last night as follows: I. H. Burt, quartermaster; L. C. Dana, post commander, and Robert Waugh, adjutant. These trustees were elected for one year and will take charge of the purchase of all supplies for the post.

An excellent program was rendered at the meeting last night. Judge Robert Kerr read a very interesting paper on "The Explosion of Ammunition at City Point," written by Dr. Gates. Dr. W. A. Shedd of Peoria, was present and made an address. P. D. Rice, a student at the college, gave several recitations that were enjoyed. Recitations were also given by Miss Holzer and Miss Barber and Mrs. Day sang a solo.

ory talked with him yesterday but he refused to say anything about the murder and declared that his previous reputation would carry him through the charges that have been filed against him. He was very sullen, the detectives stated, and did not talk civilly.

"I have as good a reputation as anybody," he is declared to have stated, in a sort of hangdog fashion. Orders have been issued by Sheriff Gilbert, under whose care he now is, to allow no one save the police officers to see him.

Murdered Woman's Mother.

Mrs. John Yokum, the murdered woman's mother, is expected in the city within a few days. Word to this effect has been received at police headquarters and it is stated that she will aid in the prosecution of her son-in-law. An important piece of evidence which the police are endeavoring to get hold of, is the letter said to have been written by the dead woman to her mother with reference to leaving her husband and going to her mother's home. It is expected that this letter will reveal many of the secrets of the married life of Trusty and his wife. Mrs. Yokum has been requested by the police to bring this letter, if it is still in existence, and it will no doubt be used in proving up the charge of murder.

Remains Sent East.

The body of Mrs. Trusty was sent to Leavenworth, Kan., at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The police expect that Mrs. Yokum will come to Colorado Springs as soon as interment has been made.

The information charging Trusty with the murder was sworn out yesterday morning and the case will be called May 19, the first day of the May term of court. The day of trial will doubtless be set at that time, and under the provisions of the law guaranteeing a speedy trial, this day will be not some time within the term. The information simply charges the murder and the jury will determine the degree of murder of which he is guilty, if at all.

Money and News Week

News of Interest Gathered in and about the Courthouse.

District, County and Justice Courts—Suits Filed, Motions Heard, Related Matters and Cases Settled.

The paying of $204.15 into the county court yesterday by Andrew J. Lawton, revealed a rather unusual circumstance in the annals of the court. The money was the share of one Allen Taylor in the estate of Louisa Taylor, and was paid into court pending the appointment of a guardian for Allen Taylor, who is now confined in an insane asylum in the state of Illinois. The money will be held in court until such a guardian is appointed.

Another unusual incident connected with the case is the fact that Andrew J. Lawton, who filed the money with the court, is the administrator of the estate of his father, A. L. Lawton, who was appointed executor under the will of Louisa Taylor. The elder Lawton died shortly after he had qualified as executor and his son was appointed administrator of his affairs, among which was the executorship of the Taylor estate.

In the district clerk's office yesterday a return was filed by Sheriff W. R. Gilbert in the case of the People against M. Kinney, Frank G. Peck and W. S. Boynton. The return stated that service had been secured on Peck and Boynton but that the whereabouts of Kinney could not be ascertained. The suit is on the bond of Kinney, who was charged with getting money under false pretenses. He left the jurisdiction of the court when placed under bond and it is now sought to recover against the bondsmen.

In the cases of Otho Beatty and James Delong against Sheriff W. R. Gilbert an application was filed yesterday by the attorney for the plaintiffs asking that he be given permission to amend the complaints.

In Justice McClelland's court yesterday a warrant was issued for the arrest of Mrs. Irine Davis, colored, on the charge of disturbing the peace. She was later arrested but released on bond in the sum of $200.

In the police court, Magistrate Hammond imposed fines on three prisoners. A fine of $10 was assessed against James Brennan for drunkenness. He was committed. Fines of $20 were assessed against Martin Hughes and William Miller on the charge of being vagabonds. Their fines were stayed upon condition that they leave the city.

In the suit of V. S. Wilson against the San Isabel Milling and Mining company heard before Judge Cunningham yesterday on a demurrer filed by the defendants, no decision was reached. The matter was taken under advisement by the court and judgment will be rendered later. The suit involves the demand of $80,333 alleged to be due as commission for the procuring of a purchaser for the San Isabel mine.

St. Vitus's

...ity, or chorea, is one of the most ...ble afflictions humanity is called on to endure. That this disease can be cured, however, is proven by the fact that it has been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The tranquilizing effect upon the nerves exerted by this remarkable medicine is witnessed to by thousands who have found healing and strength in its use. It not only cures nervous diseases, but it promotes the health of the whole body. It is a nerve-feeding, strength-giving, sleep-inducing medicine. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics. It cannot disagree with the weakest or most delicate constitution.

"When our daughter Lizzie had St. Vitus's dance, I happened to get one of your small books and read it," writes Henry L. Miller, Esq., of 908 North 7th St., Burlington, Iowa. "Among other things I found that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cured patients suffering from that trouble, so I went out and got a bottle. She was very bad at that time and could hardly talk. When I read about your medicine in that small book, I said to myself, with the help of God and that medicine we can cure our daughter. We did so. Four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' cured her, and I did not have to take her to the Doctor any more. She is well, thank God and the 'Favorite Prescription' for it."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness.

The motion for a new trial in the case of John Embler vs. the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company was taken under advisement yesterday and a decision will be rendered within a few days.

In the county court yesterday the motion for attorney's fees and for alimony in the case of Alice M. Record against her husband, John Record, was argued and later passed until April 28, when argument will be taken up further.

A suit for divorce was filed in the county court yesterday by Marie C. Myenberg against her husband, Benjamin Myenberg. The complaint alleges desertion as the grounds for divorce.

...RNEN... CONGRESS...

"Afoot and Alone in Ireland" was the subject of an interesting lecture delivered before a large audience at the First Methodist church last night by Dr. Carnine of Denver. In opening his remarks Dr. Carnine stated that his mother's maiden name was Mc-Carty and that he had often wanted to go to Ireland and visit the old McCarty homestead. While he was making his preparations to go, he was asked whether it was cheaper to go alone and afoot than with a large party and ride. This suggested to him the idea of tramping his way through the country and he changed his plans accordingly.

Dr. Carnine related many interesting incidents about his trip, starting from Belfast and making a complete tour of the Emerald isle. The speaker gave his audience a glimpse into the life and customs of the Irish people and told briefly of the land laws. Dr. Carnine stated the conditions were much improved since the matter of rents had been taken out of the hands of landlords and their agents and had been placed within the jurisdiction of the courts.

Dr. Carnine's lecture was very humorous and his audience was kept laughing nearly all evening. He will return to Denver this morning. While here he stopped with William Lemon and family.

...MEN'S CONGRESS...

The regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's congress was held last night in the congress hall of the Y. M. C. A. building. There was a very good attendance and much interest awakened by the debate upon house resolution, No. 3, introduced by G. H. Bour, of Ohio.

The resolution was as follows: "Resolved, that the nationalization of industry is the only solution of the trust problem."

After quite a discussion the congress adjourned until next Tuesday evening when the subject will be concluded. A bill will then be introduced upon the subject of "Foreign Immigration."

An earnest and cordial invitation is extended to all young men to join. Much benefit can be derived from an acquaintance with the subjects discussed. Visitors are welcome at any time.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY—The Woman's auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will hold a reception today from 3 until 4 o'clock in the new building. All women who wish to visit the building will be cordially welcomed. The receptions are being held through the month of April only.

A...y Wa... Ke... W... Co... Water Case

In reply to Mr. Sheafor's interview in yesterday morning's Gazette relative to the case of Colorado City versus Colorado Springs, and especially that part which he says the people of Colorado City have contributed nothing towards the building of their splendid water system, Attorney John R. Watt, representing the plaintiff, states that Colorado City has contributed in the way of annually rentals her legitimate share, always paying the same rate that the inhabitants of Colorado Springs pay. Mr. Watt said:

"According to the appropriations of the city of Colorado Springs for the years of 1901 and 1902, pertaining to the water department, there was raised from the water system alone the sum of $100,917.55, the cost of maintaining the system was $13,240, the interest on the waterworks bonds, $46,000, the waterworks sinking fund, $14,000, making a total outlay of that department of $73,-[illegible]. This deducted from the income of that department leaves a net balance to the city of Colorado Springs of $43,-[illegible], which is a clear profit, and Colorado City has contributed her proportion and part of this excess which goes into the general fund of Colorado Springs and from which Colorado City derives no benefit whatever. Colorado City people have always been, and are now willing to pay the same rate for the same service that Colorado Springs people pay. This is the terms of a contract of long standing, and we feel Colorado Springs is attempting an injustice on the people of Colorado City when they attempt to compel them to pay 25 per cent more for water.

"Mr. Sheafor states that no council has a right to make a contract which will bind the people for all time, and that such an agreement if it is produced is wholly void and of no effect. This seems to be a strange position from two standpoints: If the contract was entered into by Colorado Springs they are morally bound to carry out their part of the contract, especially since Colorado City has relied upon it for a period of 25 years, always considering that they had a permanent water system and permitting all the water accessible to be appropriated; and, secondly, the agreement on the part of Colorado Springs was made in consideration of Colorado City giving permission to occupy the streets, alleys and other public places with the water system for water at the same rate that is charged to the inhabitants of Colorado Springs.

"Now as to this second proposition: Mr. Sheafor, as we take it, is seeking to continue to use the streets, alleys and other public places for the use of their system and wishes only to avoid the contract in so far as the payment for that use goes. We hold that if the contract is good as to the franchise, it is also good as to the promise to pay for that franchise.

"Even a soulless corporation should be compelled to do justice and stand to the whole contract or abandon the whole contract, and we believe that courts of equity will so direct."

CONSUMPTION

The wise men of the medical profession are changing their minds about this hitherto considered incurable disease, Tuberculosis. Since the little Bensonizer has shown its ability to master this "Great White Plague," the broad minded and noble doctors who have seen the cures performed before their eyes, have not hesitated to recommend the treatment. Hospitals have employed the Bensonizer Cure with marked success. Skeptics are forced to acknowledge that they never saw the like of the work done by this absolutely new method of cure for all diseases of the air passages, Consumption, Asthma, Hay Fever and Catarrh. It won't cost you a cent to TEST the cure. Is YOUR LIFE worth the effort?

The following names of patients in Colorado Springs now under treatment with the Bensonizer method, who have the disease under subjection, will gladly testify to their improvement: Mrs. B. H. Hirt, Art Shop, 15 E. Kiowa St.; A. C. Pointer, 436 E. Willamette St.; D. S. Salisch, 601 N. Nevada Ave.; L. C. Reid, 509 S. El Paso St.; J. C. Lyle, 230 E. Dale St.; B. A. Griffith, 10 N. Oak St.; Mrs. J. R. Reese, 618 E. Boulder St.

TESTIMONIALS

The following testimonials will speak for themselves. Some of the cures were made over thirty years ago, but since coming into possession of the Bensonizer method of cure we have been able to handle every case that we have undertaken, providing the patient had no serious complications of the stomach and kidneys. Read the testimonials carefully and act on the advice.

Cured and Sworn to Ten Years After Recovery.

Mr. Stiles is well and in perfect health today, and will gladly answer any letter of inquiry containing stamp for reply.

Peru, Ind., Jan. 23, 1893.

Dr. Q. Van Hummell—Dear Sirs: I will gladly give you a complete history of my case, hoping thereby to help other sufferers by pointing out to them the road to a cure. The exact date, of course, it will be impossible for me to give. In the fall of 1867 I took a severe cold in my head, which, like most every one else, I neglected, thinking it would soon subside, but instead of getting well it stayed with me. I was living in Ohio at the time and consulted a local physician, who treated it lightly, gave me a prescription which did me no good. The acute cold subsided but left me with a constant obstruction of the nostrils and almost a constant headache, and kept me hawking frequently to clear my throat. In the spring of 1868 I came to this city, continued to grow worse, and some time in the fall or winter of 1868 I consulted a physician here and placed myself under his care; in a few months my throat became very sore, and sharp, stinging pains became very frequent through my lungs. I became uneasy and called the attention of my doctor to it, but he treated it secretly. He did not seem to think it anything serious, said nothing to allay my fears, but steadily told me that catarrh hardly ever went to the lungs. He knew better, or at least suspected. About this time I met a physician from Rochester, New York. He told me my left lung was badly diseased, and he feared that it would give me trouble; of course this frightened me very much, and made me resolve to get rid of such other doctor; so on July 4, 1870, I went to Indianapolis for the purpose of placing myself under the care of quite a noted doctor (a professor of the Indiana Medical college). My object in this he could do me no good, so it was only a question of time with me. I then went back home, make my arrangements as comfortable as possible, take my bed and commence the wearing away and [illegible] that I had been passing through, did not take his death for a long time, but at last death came to the Indianapolis Sanitarium; they can cure you when others fail. Very truly yours,

A. D. STILES.

I, A. D. Stiles, being duly sworn, upon oath say that the foregoing statement is true, so help me God.

Consumption in the First Stage Cured and Sworn To.

Peru, Ind., Dec. 20, 1893.

To the Public:

In December, 1873, I was taken with lung fever. This left me with a broken constitution and constant and distressing pains in my lungs. In 1878 I found out for the first time that I also had catarrh of the nose and throat. My general health grew rapidly worse. The pains in my lungs increased until they were most distressing. Tickling cough, and all the symptoms of a full-fledged case of catarrh and consumption of the lungs. In this fearful and despondent condition I consulted you. The scientific and careful examination satisfied me at once that you took hold of such cases different from any other physicians I had ever heard of. In four short months I am cured. My lungs are now strong, no pains; no headache, no cough; and, instead of being stooped and round shouldered, I am erect, my chest full and general health excellent, having gained 14 pounds in weight. I cheerfully say to consumptives, go to the Institute; they cured me when no one else could. I owe my life and health to them. Very truly yours,

ANDREW J. O'BRIAN,

LETTER

From the Right Rev. J. C. Talbot, Episcopal Bishop of Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 19, 1874.

Dr. Q. Van Hummell—My Dear Doctors: You are entirely at liberty to use my name as one of your highly references. Your skilled treatment of my wife, now nearly a year past, has entirely cured her of severe catarrh and cough, from which she suffered much for many years. Yours very truly,

JOS. C. TALBOT,

CONSUMPTION.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 6, 1902.

Dear Doctor: I have been a sufferer from tuberculosis for four years, and since July 30, 1901, I had twelve hemorrhages (each one of which would fill a wash basin.) My normal weight was 158 pounds, and when Mr. Dan Hill, vice president of the Western Advertising company, brought me to your office I weighed 128 pounds. I had been treated by four physicians without any good results, and finally was given up by them, they stating that no medicine would cure me.

I began treating with your inhaling apparatus, the Bensonizer, September 1, 1902. I had lost 32 pounds. At this date I have gained 23 pounds in weight and am strong and well and able to attend to my business every day, and I can truly certify that I am now free from any symptoms of tuberculosis (consumption.)

I make this affidavit voluntarily for the benefit of all those who are suffering from lung trouble, so that they may take advantage of the Bensonizer treatment in the hopes that they may get the same results that I have.

When I consider my condition when I came to your office and now to know that I am a cured man, I feel that I owe it to humanity to allow you to publish this, so that those who are afflicted may know that there is an absolute cure for consumption in the Bensonizer treatment. FRANK SLOAN.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 6th day of January, 1903.

S. A. ANDERSON,
Notary Public.

My commission expires March 27, 1906.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 15, 1902.

Gentlemen: From my observation of the case of Mr. Frank Sloan, whom I brought to your office practically in a dying condition, I am fully convinced that your Bensonizer treatment is doing a noble work in saving suffering humanity from that most dreaded disease, consumption, and I shall take pleasure in recommending it to any one afflicted with that or kindred diseases. Yours truly, D. A. HILL,

Vice President Western Advertising Company, Century Building.

The following is from a brother of the secretary of the International Tuberculosis Congress:

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 15, 1902.

Gentlemen: Replying to your favor of October 13 in reference to Mr. Frank Sloan, I wish to state that I have known him for several years, and was knowing to the fact that he was suffering from tuberculosis, has had many hemorrhages and was given up to his fate by his physicians. However, since using the Bensonizer for the last six weeks the results toward recovery are so marked that it is almost beyond belief. OZIAS PAQUIN, M. D.

CONSUMPTION.

San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 15, 1902.

Gentlemen: I have used your Bensonizer treatment for six weeks for consumption. I had taken all kinds of treatment previous to this without results, or even relief. I had raised quantities of sputum day and night. They stopped after the third week and I have been steadily gaining flesh and color, good appetite and sleep well. I believe this treatment will cure any case of consumption. Yours truly,

MRS. C. L. POOL.

CONSUMPTION.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 11, 1902.

Gentlemen: I have derived wonderful benefit from the use of the Bensonizer treatment. All winter and up to the time I began to use the treatment I was scarcely able to be around, and coughed all of the time. The doctors' medicine gave no relief, but after one month's treatment with the Bensonizer method I felt like a new person. I am relieved of my cough, have a good appetite, sleep well and am able to go back to my work.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 15, 1902.

Gentlemen: I consider your Bensonizer treatment for consumption the greatest wonder of the twentieth century. Having tried all kinds of medical treatments, which failed, I was sent away to a different climate. I have spent months in trying to find relief in a climatic change, which also failed to bring relief.

I was brought to the office of your representative and, to say the truth, I had little faith in the treatment, but concluded to try it.

I have used it now only 15 days and can say that my cough has most entirely stopped, no fever, color returning to my face, good appetite and sleep sound, which I have not been able to do for months. I have gained five pounds in weight and feel that I cannot say enough for the Bensonizer treatment, which is a godsend to those suffering with consumption.

W. H. ADAMS,
312 Nolan Street.

CONSUMPTION.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 22, 1903.

Gentlemen: I take great pleasure in stating that the benefits derived from the Bensonizer treatment are beyond any expectations I had before beginning the treatment. I contracted consumption while in Chattanooga, Tenn., while I was a member of Company C, First Missouri volunteers, and was sent home on sick leave. Before contracting the disease I weighed 180 pounds. I took treatment from three different physicians, but constantly lost health and weight until when I came to your office, November 6, I only weighed 129 pounds. I had a most violent and persistent cough, constant night sweats, no appetite, hard to eat one meal a day, and I was unable to walk a block without resting. I felt hopelessly lost. But since taking the Bensonizer treatment I have gained 11 pounds, night sweats entirely disappeared after the first week's treatment, and now I can eat anything and do eat six meals a day. I am constantly gaining strength rapidly and can go anywhere and am doing light work daily.

My greatest desire is that those who are suffering from consumption may know that there is a cure for this dreaded disease, and that the Bensonizer treatment is all that is claimed for it, and more, and I thank God that I learned of it before it was too late. Very sincerely yours,

WILLIAM HILGEMAN,
2624 Thomas Street.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 22d day of January, 1903.

S. A. ANDERSON, Notary Public.
St. Louis, Mo.
My term expires March 27, 1906.

ASTHMA.

U. S. Custom House,
St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 27, 1903.

Gentlemen: It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that my wife is now restored to health through the Bensonizer treatment. Mrs. Grupe, who is 49 years old, had been afflicted with asthma for the past 10 years, and every effort of our physicians was unavailing. Latterly and for months before beginning the treatment she was unable to lie down at night, or get any rest whatever.

The last three physicians I had told me that the only cure for her was to seek a climatic change, that no medicine that they knew of would effect a cure. She got so bad I did not expect her to live. But in 10 days after beginning treatment with the Bensonizer method the asthma had been relieved to such an extent that she could sleep every night comfortably. She has continued to steadily improve until now she is entirely well. This has taken only about three months.

I have recommended the treatment to others of my friends, who are all getting well.

I believe you have the greatest discovery of the twentieth century. Thanking you thousands for the benefit treatment received at your hands, I am, respectfully,

CHAS. H. GRUPE.

ASTHMA.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 7, 1903.

Gentlemen: I am glad to say that after using your Bensonizer treatment for the past three months I am cured of asthma. I am 64 years old and have had asthma 20 years. Respectfully,

MRS. L. DAMME,
2844 Lotus Avenue.

CATARRH.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 24, 1902.

Gentlemen: My power of language is too feeble to express my appreciation and praise of the Bensonizer treatment for catarrh.

About two months since I was induced through a friend to begin treatment with you. I was like a drowning man grabbing at a straw, and began treatment with very little hope of relief.

My past experience in various treatments had confirmed me in the belief that catarrh was incurable. I had been treated by several specialists at great expense, with no benefit. Was treated at the hospitals by prominent physicians, two operations being made on nose and throat in the treatment, but I only received temporary relief, and in a few weeks I was suffering as bad as ever. I have been afflicted 25 years with dry catarrh, which is admitted to be the most difficult form to treat, and intolerable to the sufferer.

In this condition I began treating with the Bensonizer method, and relief was immediate, and life was renewed, and now, after two months' use, I feel that I am permanently cured. I do not now suffer one symptom of the disease.

Anyone suffering from catarrh who wishes to see a cured case, send them to me, and I will certainly convince them of the wonderful results accomplished in my case. Respectfully,

E. C. WEBSTER,
1503 Washington Avenue.

Amusements

ALF. FIELD'S BIG MINSTREL

Speaking of the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels, the Louisville Courier-Journal says: "McAuley's theatrical season opened last night with the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels, to standing room only. There were chairs in the aisles and rows of people standing up back of the seats, but of all the audience, probably not one went away dissatisfied. Al. Field has gone after the people and the money, and he will get both. Unquestionably one of the very best things in the show was Al. G. Field's trust monologue. With every word it seemed to gather wind, wit and wisdom, until the majority of the people could not applaud, they needed both hands to hold their sides. It is the best line of talk that has been heard out across the footlights in many a day. In fact but one question was left unanswered. What became of the fox? There are great possibilities in that dog, and the season is not yet over." The Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels will exhibit here at the Opera house on next Tuesday evening.

THE WARDE-DE PAMI IN "OTHELLO"

On next Saturday evening Mr. Charles D. Herman and the famous Warde company will be seen in an elaborate production of Shakespeare's sublime tragedy, "Othello," at the Opera house. The company is the same that gave the great Indian drama, Pardi, and comes highly recommended.

The Omaha World-Herald of April 14, in reviewing the performance, said: "The audience at the Boyd last evening was rewarded by witnessing one of the best productions of 'Otherello' by the Herman-Warde company that has been given in this city for some time. Be it said to the credit of the organization that not a bad actor appeared in the play.

"As the 'Othello' of Charles D. Herman ... charming Desdemona, Francis ... as 'Iago,' gave the best interpretation of this part seen in Omaha in many years. His conception of the character was intelligent, scholarly and ..."

The Colorado college and Pueblo Y. M. C. A. basketball teams will play their postponed game in the gymnasium of the new Y. M. C. A. building tomorrow evening. This game was to have been played in January, but was postponed on account of the illness of some of the Pueblo players. The game tomorrow evening will be the second between the two aggregations, one game having been played several months ago in Pueblo, in which the Pueblo boys proved victorious. Prof. W. A. Bidwell of the Y. M. C. A., will probably referee the game.

KENYON'S DOGS WERE IN AT THE KILLING

A party of local coursers, one of the first of the spring season, went out to the Garden ranch and Long pasture, yesterday morning, under the leadership of Joe Kenyon. Two coyotes and four rabbits were started but only three rabbits were secured. The party enjoyed a good chase however. Mr. Kenyon ran some of the dogs he will enter in the big meet to be held at Ordway Sunday and Monday, among them being Crescens, OMo Obey, Young Corbett and two nine-month-old puppies sired by Corbett out of Beushi, who won the futurity in 1900. The puppies showed up remarkably well and promise to develop into fast ones.

Those who took part in the chase were Miss Shannon, Miss Lord, Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. Francis and Mr. Evans.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM

Is the Only Possible Way of Having a Permanent Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin, brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling hair and baldness can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

NAVAL OFFICER AVOIDS ARREST IN PORTO RICO

By Associated Press.

San Juan, Porto Rico, April 21.—The police have not been able to arrest Captain Andrew Dunlap, U. S. N., commandant of the naval station here, against whom a warrant has been issued for bringing in liquors without paying duty, because the naval station is a government reserve and Captain Dunlap remains in it. Policemen stood at the gate of the station more yesterday afternoon until noon today when they were withdrawn by order of Governor Hunt. It is expected that Captain Dunlap will present himself tomorrow.

Commander G. W. Mentz, U. S. N., and Robert Glen, against whom warrants were issued on the same charge, have been arraigned and have pleaded not guilty. A preliminary hearing will be held before Justice Bazan, a native, but because of the inability to apprehend Captain Dunlap the date for the hearing has not yet been set.

P. V. Mohum, U. S. N., for whom there is a warrant out on the charge of illegally bringing in liquors, is in the United States and will be summoned later through the government.

REPRESENTATIVE S. W. JONES DIED IN DENVER YESTERDAY

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, April 21.—Representative Solomon W. Jones, one of the best known Republican politicians in Colorado, died this morning at St. Anthony's hospital.

Mr. Jones was removed from his home, at 1510 South Pennsylvania avenue, Friday, as his condition had become alarmingly worse and constant attendance by physicians and trained nurses became necessary.

During the senatorial fight in the legislature the heroism of Mr. Jones in attending every session elicited much admiration and sympathy. He was a member of the house from Grand and Summit counties, and when some member asked that he be excused he said: "I shall attend every session during this fight if I have breath in my body."

Mr. Jones did so. He was carried in each morning and remained in a reclining chair at his desk, attended by his son Ralph. Not until the fight was over did he give up hope that Wolcott would be elected United States senator. At the end of the fight he was excused for the rest of the session. Every session, however, was attended by his son, Ralph M. Jones, 21 years old, who faithfully reported to his father the proceedings.

The election of Mr. Jones is without a parallel in Colorado politics. The Republicans of Grand and Summit counties were sure he was the only Republican who could be elected. He was nominated and his campaign was carried on by his friends because of his illness. Not one speech did he make during a hot campaign, nor did he attend a single meeting. He remained at home, except occasional visits to his office throughout the campaign. He won by 116 votes.

After the election he decided to accept, despite his illness, and at once arranged to move from his home in Breckenridge to Denver, where he died.

In 1886 Mr. Jones came to Colorado and settled at Breckenridge. There he has been the district attorney, county attorney and town attorney. He was active in state politics and was elected attorney general in 1894 under Governor Job A. Cooper.

The interment will be at Breckenridge.

SCHRADER AND SADLIER TO BE TRIED FOR PERJURY

Special to the Gazette.

Both will be tried on the indictments charging perjury. It is expected that the trial of R. H. Tammen and W. J. Thomas, indicted at the same time, will follow immediately.

CRIPPLE CREEK MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS SOMEWHAT TANGLED

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, April 21.—The new city council met this evening at six o'clock and the first business of importance was the report of the committee to investigate the official bonds which recommended that they be approved.

Alderman Barnard then moved that each and every one of the police force be removed and discharged from duty, and the mayor immediately fill vacancies made, which resolution was carried and adopted, and a new police force was appointed. The next business was a resolution passed and carried that the election contest be referred to a committee, the committee being named by Mayor Stookey. They then adjourned.

All kinds of contests and protests and counter-claims have been filed today against each side of the city aldermanic fight. This afternoon three of the Democratic aldermen who were left at the last election, have brought suit in the district court, and want the places now filled by their opponents to be turned over to them, while this evening attorneys for the opposite side served papers on other Democratic aldermen in retaliation and it is hard telling when the fight will end, or if at the present time the action the city council is taking is legal or not.

STRIKE LEADER SHOT BY MEMBERS OF A POSSE

By Associated Press.

Charleston, W. Va., April 21. Another tragedy growing out of the battle between striking miners and deputy United States marshals at Stanford City last February, took place near that place today when John Harlessman, one of the strike leaders, was shot and killed by John Loing and a man named George, who went with Deputy Marshals Cunningham and Summers to arrest Harlessman on a warrant issued in the federal court. When the officers approached the house Harlessman ran out. He was commanded to halt but instead he dodged behind a tree, drew his pistol and began firing. Loing and George returned the fire and Harlessman fell dead. Harlessman was said to have been one of the leaders of the strikers at the Stanford City field. John Loing is the manager of the Leonard Coal company's mines, which property adjoins Stanford City.
